THE FOX HUNT

FEB -9 1925

By Hal E. Roach.

The Spat family invited to participate in a fox chase (the first in their social career) decides to get some practise. Piloted by brother Ambrose horses - saddles and costumes are secured, but not a fox. Their efforts to ride to hounds are accentuated by their inexperience which bring about many laughable and funny situations throughout the chase and sadder but not much wiser, the cross country pageant toddle painfully home, minus the bushy-tailed animal.
